

Entrance turnabout with prominent visual opportunity at center
 Walking path throughout cemetery

New "pull-off" locations along drive for visitation

Primary location opportunity

New Fairmount Cemetery Historical map and information

New parking along drive for visitors

Plant trees along southern edge to screen School from view

Secondary entrance and exit

- New entry location
- Monument sign for people heading south on US-231
- New pond feature
- New golf cart and maintenance addition
- Update exterior of existing office building
- New public restroom addition
- New Service Men and Women Memorial with Flags
- Low columbarium walls and garden
- Covered open air church with views towards trees and water
- Parking location for funeral service and visitors
- New decorative fence, brick columns, and landscaping to create a separation buffer along US-231 between existing walk and first row of plots.
- Maintain historical entrance location and construct new brick columns. Replace gate with new larger gate to resemble original historical character. Accent historic path with new stone path
- Provide multiple "pull-off" locations along drive
- Founder of Huntingburg Historical Signage
- New bench seating spread throughout cemetery
- Corrective drainage measures in this area
- God's Acre - former Potter's Field
- New God's Acre signage
- New monument sign for people heading north along US-231

